Home Bureau Hold Christmas Party

A pot-luck dinner and gift exchange were the highlights of the December meeting and Christmas Party of the Frankfort Unit of the Home Bureau when they met at the home of Mrs. Milton Geuther on Tuesday, December 19. Mrs. Orville Hohenstein conducted a short business meeting. Mrs. Clarence Schroth, Frankfort, joined the Unit. Twelve members were present. Mrs. Edith Huffman conducted the major lesson, giving many useful suggestions for planning better meals with less work. Mrs. George Elsnore was in charge of the games. Program books for the coming year were distributed and promise many interesting and worth while lessons. If you are interested in belonging to a Home Bureau Unit, contact Mrs. E. Huffman, Post office building, in Joliet, or any of the local members. The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Eisenbrandt, of Frankfort, on January 23.

Newspapers Great Educational Factor

The newspaper, long an important source of information for the public, is given recognition as a great factor in education by John A. Wieland, Superintendent of Public Instruction, in the December issue of the Educational Press Bulletin.

Superintendent Wieland says, "Ninety per cent of adults do read their newspapers, even in times of peace. Some skim the headlines and glance at the comic strips, others read it thoroughly. If our schools intend to keep close connection with living youngsters, they will recognize the newspaper as a potent factor in education, adult and otherwise, and accordingly make use of it to widen horizons."

NOTICE

Failure of our syndicated features to arrive on time makes it necessary for us to run a 6-page paper this week in place of our customary ten pages. Our full number of pages will be run next week, however.

Merry Christmas to All

At this merry Yuletide season, it almost seems a mockery to hear the phrase "Peace on Earth" when we see about half of the world in the throes of war with all its attendant chaos and misery. All of this trouble of the world is man made. Men have turned away from the Prince of Peace and the true meaning of Christmas and blinded by hate, greed, envy, the teachings of false isms and lust for power have turned hell itself loose on earth and have made demons whose only desire is for murder and rapine. War is plain murder, regardless of the fact that men seek to glorify war and make its murders sound less horrible by hiding them under the cloak of legality.

Why has the Christmas story and the Yuletide tradition lost its influence on the people across the seas? What has caused the blindness of the people?

We here in America still can celebrate Christmas with its full significance and joy. Here we are trying to spread cheer and happiness among our less fortunate brethren and the joy of the Christmastide is manifest not only in churches, schools, and homes, but in the busy marts of trade.

So long as we can and will keep the Christmas spirit aglow in America, so long will our nation be bright with its holy light, and we will continue to be a free people. Our nation was founded on Christian principles and will only endure as long as we adhere to them. Let us continue to shed Christmas cheer abroad, not only at Christmas time, but throughout the whole year.

Perhaps some day we may be able to spread the Christmas Spirit of Peace to the blinded, heathen nations of Europe and make them see the light and the futility of hate, greed and lust which in the end lead to chaos and destruction.

Let us all pray and work to the goal of being able some day to celebrate the birthday of the great Prince of Peace the world over in the fullness of its meaning and application.

And now may we join the great chorus of "Merry Christmas to All!"

This Time Editor Gets Bouquet

The editor was greatly surprised and pleased to find the following "bouquet" handed to him in last week's issue of "The Spectator," Joliet's weekly illustrated newspaper.

Mokena, Dec. 11—I like your paper and I like our Mokena paper. It is a well printed and newsy country weekly, far above the average country weekly in get-up and print. I want to congratulate the editor of the Mokena News-Bulletin for his fine paper.

E. A. C.

We sincerely thank E. A. C. for those kind words which are deeply appreciated. We have been putting forth our best efforts at all times to produce a paper just a little different from the ordinary run of weekly papers and have especially concentrated on printing interesting home news, of home folks and places our readers are interested in. Such "bouquets" as the above are certainly an incentive to make our paper still more outstanding and newsy. The function of a newspaper is to disseminate news to keep the public informed of the happenings of the local community as well as the world at large.

Will Sponsor Combined Program

A combination Christmas program of the Frankfort Public school and the Community Christmas Tree as sponsored by Mayor George Sangmeister and the Frankfort village board will be held this Friday night at 7:30 in the Frankfort school-gym.

The Community Christmas tree will be placed in the school gym and on Saturday morning will be placed in front of the village hall.

The school program will be carried out first, followed by the Community program. Rev. G. Gerhold of the St. Peter Evangelical church, and the Rev. Mr. Malek of the Frankfort Methodist church will be the speakers. The choirs of both churches will furnish the musical part of the program. There will also be community singing and a Santa Claus will be on hand to hand out gifts to the children.

The village, as in other years, furnishes the Christmas tree and the proceeds of the basketball game played Tuesday night between the Mokena and Frankfort teams will be used to purchase gifts for the children.

Mayor George Sangmeister and the village board have for a number of years sponsored a Community Christmas tree and a Community Christmas program and this is the first time this program and the school programs have been combined.

Scouts From 2 Counties At Mokena Troop Investiture Ceremonies

Impressive and symbolic was the investiture ceremony held in connection with the induction of Mokena Boy Scout Troop No. 40 into the Potawatomi Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America in the Mokena High School auditorium, Wednesday night.

Prior to the special candle lighting service, the annual business meeting of the Indian Trail District was held in charge of Arthur Kohls, a veteran scoutmaster of Midlothian. Reports of the progress of the district for its first year were read and showed remarkable accomplishments. In the first year $531 was raised for the work of the Council. Albert Stolz of Midlothian was elected District chairman of the council and True Daniels of Tinley Park was chosen assistant district chairman.

At the conclusion of the business session all the lights in the auditorium were turned out and the only light was a large white candle setting on a table in front of the auditorium. Six Boy Scouts, each of the Orland Troop under the direction of Scoutmaster Ralph Town, and the Midlothian Boy Scouts under the direction of Scoutmaster Perry Newport, lit a series of candles from the lone white candle, this being symbolic of the spreading of the light of scouting from the council to the various troops. As each candle was lighted and placed on a log, each Scout made brief remarks, setting forth some outstanding points of scout work and what it means to the boys.

At the conclusion of the candle

Will Hold A Candlelight Service

The public is cordially invited to attend a candle-light service to be held in the Mokena Lutheran church on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. A special choir from the Lutheran church in Beverly Hills has been engaged to present the beautiful Christmas music for this song festival. Those who attended the candlelight service, held during the last Christmas season will agree that a special music treat is in store for all those interested in good music. No admission charge will be made. A free-will offering will be taken to defray the expense of the service. Keep this date open—Thursday, December 28—and come to enjoy a beautiful presentation of Christmas music.

Anna Stancato of Mokena Dies

Mrs. Anna Stancato, aged 50 years, died Saturday in Chicago following a long illness.

She was the widow of the late Charles Stancato, and is survived by six daughters: Mrs. Joseph DeGuido, Mrs. Albert Basile, Sophie, Margaret, Elaine, and Violet Stancato. Four sons: Gabriel, Louis, John, and Salvatore, of Mokena; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monaco, Chicago, two brothers, Frank and James Monaco, and 15 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from the late home on the former Mineral Spring farm, south of Mokena, to St. Mary's Catholic church, at 9:30 o'clock. Burial was made in the St. Mary cemetery at Mokena.

service, Henry Heidelmann, Harvey, President of the Potawatomi Trails Council, presented the charter of the Mokena Troop to R. A. Bechstein, President of the Mokena Civic Ass'n, who are sponsoring the Mokena Scouts. Mr. Bechstein, following the acceptance of the charter, presented it in turn to Stokes Nebeker, Chairman of the Boy Scout committee of the Mokena Civic Ass'n.

A patriotic strain mingled with the Scout symbolism when in a touching part of the program the color guard of the Wm. Martin Post No. 715, of the V. F. W., of Frankfort, and members of the Ladies Auxiliary of that Post, entered the auditorium amid the strains of the national anthem and took their positions in front of the group of the Scout groups while a beautiful large American flag was presented on behalf of the sponsoring organization by President Bechstein, who said in part in his presentation address:

"You have been the recipients tonight of special honors conferred on you by the accredited officers of the Potawatomi Trail Boy Scouts of America."

"Now comes to you additional honors. Approximately one million men, Veteran of Foreign Wars understand, sense and appreciate the high ideals of the splendid organization of which you are now an integral part. Therefore come as a special compliment to you, the color guards of the Wm. Martin Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and their

Dairymen View Control Plan

While Cook County farmers were weighing merits of the 57-cent corn loan, more than 100 leaders of the dairy industry, meeting in Chicago December 4, were considering a new surplus control plan that would include dairy products, according to Wilfred Shaw, director of milk marketing with the Illinois Agricultural Association. The meeting was in connection with the 21st annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

"The discussion centered around a proposal by John Brandt, president of Land O' Lakes Creameries, Inc., Minneapolis, Minn., for pooling surplus farm commodities and taking land out of production under a revised allotment system," Shaw said. The pool would be financed thru assessments on products handled. Producers would be guaranteed parity prices by the pool.

County acreage allotments would be filled from land offered for rent by farm operators on a competitive basis. Low bidders would receive their bid prices per acre for the use of as much land as they desire to leave idle.

Don Anderson, dairy economist with the University of Wisconsin, commented favorably on the plan. He said that as long as labor and industry are committed to production control, farmers, too, must have such a program.

A. H. Lauterbach, manager of Pure Milk Association, Chicago, conceded the need of a production control plan in the dairy industry but warned that the Brandt proposal in spite of its simplified application to individual farms, would be more complicated to administer than the AAA. The difficulty, he said, would arise in operating commodity pools for the advantage of all producers' groups.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"In the Universe, including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 17.

The Golden Text was, "All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power" (Psalm 145: 10, 11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handy-work" (Psalm 19:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God creates and governs the universe, including man. The universe is filled with spiritual ideas, which He creates, and they are obedient to the Mind that makes them" (p. 295).

Delightful refreshments were served by our hostess, and the members departed for home at a late hour, assuring Mrs. Hanson that this fine Christmas party will long be remembered by every one attending.

 For one short year, dear Gertrude, You've slumbered now at rest,
 We've missed you very much here,
 But we know that you are happy

 We miss them as we miss you;
 You are at home in heaven,
 Because of your trust so true.
 God rest your spirit, Gertrude,
 We'll soon see you above;
 Tho we can't send you a letter
 We can send you our love.

In The Churches

TINLEY PARK METHODIST

L. E. Weinreich, Pastor

Once again the Christian world is celebrating its most important event. An event commemorating the birthday of one who brought enlightenment to those who would follow him; who died that man might be saved from his sins. A character to whom we all belong; Jesus Christ.

Again we are in full swing of the Christmas spirit. Churches and Sunday schools are planning their programs. Christmas carols are being sung, drives are being made to help those who are in need. Drives to make unfortunate ones happy once more, in a season when all should be joyous.

We have arrived at that period of the year when all prejudices should give way to brotherly love. We should be especially gay and kind when we are remembering the birth of our Saviour.

Throw away your grudge against your neighbor. Live with him as all the world should be living instead of the way it is.

Get rid of that long drawn face. Yes, the burdens have been heavy. But forget them, for your Helper is especially near you.

Open up your heart and let it flow forth with pure, rich, undying desire to spread fellowship. Remember that He too spread fellowship.

Look out over the world and see what a horrifying condition it is in. Then remember your Saviour and all his teachings, and pray, and hope, and wish that when the Christmas season rolls round once more man will better understand the value of the meaning of the few simple words, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men." This season try to understand that these words do not concern only warring nations, but individuals as well.

May the dear Lord in Heaven place His blessing upon you this Yuletide season.

Shrine Winter Circus Opens In Chicago Dec. 30

Leading American stars of the "big-top" will be augmented by talent from war-infested Europe in the presentation of the third annual Shrine Winter Circus, to be held December 30 to January 14 at the International Amphitheatre, Chicago.

Officers of Medinah Temple, sponsor of the charity event, announce that not only headline acts but a complete menagerie and a sideshow of outstanding freaks have been recruited from the large outdoor tent organizations for their third annual offering.

The net proceeds will go to the Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children. Joseph G. Rowley, illustrious Potentate of the sponsoring organization, reports a heavy advance sale of seats, and anticipates the record attendance of more than 250,000 at last year's circus will be materially increased.

The all-star program is to be headed by Captain Roman Proske and his cage of wild Bengal tigers, an act that thrilled visitors at the New York World's Fair and a new offering for Chicagoans; the Flying Solts and their brilliantly colorful aerial ballet; the Great Wallendas, direct from the Black Pool Towers, London, England, who will perform death-defying stunts near the roof of the Arena on a tight wire with no protection of a net below; the Loyal Repensky's in daring and skilful bare-back riding feats; the Flying Harolds, the aerial Voises, Rudy Rudynoff and his educated Liberty horses and the noted Davenport-Hodgini equestrian troupe.

To be seen for the first time in the sawdust arena in America will be the famous Picchiani acrobatic troupe of Europeans who perform sensational, breath-taking feats; the Six Abdualhals and the Rieffenachs. There will be no dearth of fun-makers with a congress of sixty clowns, headed by the inimitable Otto Griebeling and "Shorty" Flemm.

A herd of 15 performing elephants and other animal actors from the jungles will add zest to the program.

Lee Powell, the original talking picture "Lone Ranger," with his wonder horse and his own company of rip-roaring buckaroos, will appear in person and perform many stunts that have made him famous as America's No. 1 cowboy star.

Among other feature acts will be the Jung Trio, Don Francisco, the Karolis, the La Pearl Trio, Naida and Perez, the Six Antaleks, the Lary Sisters, Roland Hibler's trained seals, the Cutshall Sisters, the Doro Duo, Diane Lovett, the beautiful elephant trainer; Barnett's dog and the Loyal troupe.

Mr. Rowley anticipates that a substantial fund will be realized for the Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, located at 2211 North Oak Park Avenue. He reports that thousands of crippled children of all denominations and color have been treated over a period of years at the hospital.

The executive committee in charge of the circus is composed of Norman J. Kissick, chairman; Arthur M. Gullickson and John B. Morgan. Orrin Davenport, veteran circus executive, is production manager.

"Chicago's spontaneous and enthusiastic acceptance of the Shrine Winter Circus has placed upon the sponsor the responsibility of producing each year the highest class entertainment of this highly specialized type without regard for expense," said Mr. Rowley.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Medinah Temple, 14 East Ohio Street and the Hotel Sherman.

HENS HIT AS EGGS TUMBLE

The little red hen, whose job is pretty well laid out for her, is laying herself out of a job, says Frank Gougler, director of produce marketing with the Illinois Agricultural Association.

A hot, dry fall so affected the little hen and her kind that she laid off for awhile and egg prices went up. Now the hen family is making up for lost time and egg prices are hovering around a six-year low.

Poultrymen who are on their toes are sending non-layers to the stew pot because the prices of eggs is too low to support lackadaisical layers. So, whether she lays or not, the little red hen always gets it in the neck.

Indications Are Building Revival to Continue in 1940

"Judging from the 6,420 homes completed or reported under construction in 1939 in our area, the building revival is gathering impetus and indications are that it will continue in 1940."

That was the encouraging statement of Britton I. Budd, president of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, to a large employee meeting in Chicago last week.

According to figures compiled by the company and based on increased gas and electric service requirements, 1939's new homes, as a group, are equivalent to adding a city of some 16,000 population to the territory served by the company—a city the size of Harvey, Blue Island or Wilmette. Of the 5,420 total, 2,729 new homes have been completed and 2,691 are under construction.

Mr. Budd pointed out that one of the most promising aspects of the new building situation is the fact that sound, well equipped and well designed types of construction are being made available to the average family on terms within its reach. The same factor, he said, makes it attractive for young people with small families to establish homes of their own in the area on a basis that, in many cases, costs less than rent for a suitable city apartment.

In discussing electric service extension to farms, Mr. Budd declared that ten years ago only 15 per cent of the farms in Public Service territory had electric service; at the beginning of 1939, this number of farms having electric service available had increased more than 70 per cent. By the end of this year, he added, some 75 per cent of all farms in the territory served by the company will have electricity available.

ORLAND PARK WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS NOTES

The regular monthly meeting held in the Creer Hall on December 14 was most inspiring and enjoyable.

A potluck luncheon was served by the hostesses at one o'clock and during the luncheon Christmas carols were sung under the direction of Mrs. H. Adele Cooper, music chairman.

Mrs. Eric Marks, Third District Chairman of Occupational Therapy in Oak Forest, displayed a beautiful assortment of rugs, aprons, hand painted toys, all made by the patients. Their articles were purchased by the members. Mrs. Marks also gave an enlightening talk on the work done by the patients in the Therapy department. This department is sponsored entirely by the clubs in the Third District and has proved in many ways the wonderful results achieved. Many patients at one time were artists in their line of work and through this department are again able to use their talents and inspire them to carry on. Half of the money received from the sale of these articles goes to the patients and the remainder to cover the expense of materials, etc.

Mrs. Chas. Maddox, the president of the Club, called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock, forty-five being present. Following the business session, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Ralph Town, program chairman, who in turn turned the meeting over to Mrs. W. J. Lindquist, public health and welfare chairman. The latter's guest speakers were Mrs. S. C. Kehl, Third District public health chairman, who gave a short talk and Dr. Guy M. Cushing, of Chicago, who gave a 45 minute talk on "Speaking of Your Operation," which was instructive as well as amusing.

Mrs. Harry Crowley, president of the Palos Park Woman's club, and Mrs. W. W. Kester, president of the Tinley Park Woman's club, received the honor of pouring tea at which angel food cake was served by the hostesses Mrs. S. L. Leavitt, Mrs. Stewart Loebe, and Mrs. Davin Kreuger.

Guests representing the Tinley Park Woman's club were Mrs. Chas. Nielsen, Mrs. Hargrave, Mrs. Harry Beggs, Mrs. Harry Dean, and Mrs. J. C. Funk. Guests from the Palos club were Mrs. J. B. Ward, Mrs. Arthur Lord, Mrs. Lester Mahaffay and Mrs. Ethel Pronger.

In behalf of the club on Monday December 18, Mrs. Lindquist and Mrs. Brown distributed individual bags contain candy, oranges, apples, sugar and tea to fifty patients at the Oak Forest Infirmary. These unfortunate people showed much appreciation and were very grateful for the gifts received and the thoughtfulness of all those who contributed.

Mrs. August Hauck entertained the "500" Club at a one o'clock pot luck luncheon Wednesday. Seventeen guests were present.

Cooper held last week was very well attended and every thing sold well.

Mrs. Cooper, in company of her sister, Mrs. Henry Tilsey, and son James and John Cutler, of Orland, left by motor Tuesday morning for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they will visit with the niece Mrs. Bert Ingle and family, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper and daughter left Saturday for Wisconsin to visit a few days with the former's sister Helen and family.

The Oscar Blinker family from Kankakee moved last week to the former farm of Mrs. Lillie Cooper, now owned by Mr. G. Clizbe of Chicago.

Mrs. Anna Hall returned from Silver Cross hospital last Saturday afternoon and is feeling quite well. The injured shoulder bone has knitted very satisfactory.

Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weiber, was ill in her home with asthma the fore part of the week.

Mrs. George Koeller, Sr., who has been ill in her home, is able to be about, altho not as well as is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Spiess attended the 45th wedding anniversary of the former's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Barger, last Saturday in their home in Chicago Heights.

Chas. Erickson returned Tuesday from a trip to Central Wisconsin to buy pure bred dairy cows.

MOKENA SCHOOL NOTES

The Mokena Public school welcomed in the holiday season with their annual Christmas program on Thursday, December 21. The program was presented in four tableaux—each of which depicted a Christmas scene, the Shepherds, the Wise-men, the Nativity, and the Carolers. While each tableau was shown, choruses off-stage composed of various grades sang appropriate songs.

Those taking character parts were: Dora Jean Stark, Billy Steen, Whitney Carter, Bob McGregor, Patricia Bennett, Donna Bueschel, Billy Bruns, Gordon Spiess, Billy Homering, Donald Smith, Lois Guidon, Violet Hurley, Lois Mancke, La Verne Gunhouse, William Mutsch, Dean Ruekert, Donna Bennett, and David Krapp.

The production staff included Catherine Reid, accompanist; Gordon Clevenger, Bob Homering, and Richard Benson, staging; Mrs. Egerton, costuming; and Wilbur Mancke, lighting.

Thursday afternoon all the rooms had Christmas parties at which ten cent gifts were exchanged. In addition, games were played and the proverbial candy cane was munched. For the lending of atmosphere each room had either a lighted tree or holly wreaths.

Intermediate Room

A very fine drawing of a fireplace and Christmas tree with many presents was drawn on the blackboard by Whitney Carter and James Eich. This drawing was done in colored chalk.

Everyone has been busy making Christmas gifts and cards. Dora Jean Stark brought to school a large snow man of crepe paper, which was made at Mrs. Geuther's shop. The children appreciate this kindness and wish to thank Dora Jean.

During the holidays Mrs. Ferguson is planning to have a dessert bridge in her home. The guests will be Mrs. Cappel, Miss Pfeil, and Miss Sauer.

IN MEMORIAM

LAUFFER, GERTRUDE E., in loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister, who passed away one year ago, December 23:

We miss thee from our home, dear sister,

We miss thee from thy place.

A shadow o'er our life is cast.

We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss thy kind and willing hand.

Thy fond and earnest care.

Our home is dark without thee—

We miss thee everywhere.
